

Judge Bruce Wood Biography

Judge Bruce Wood is a life time resident of Kaufman County where his family roots were established in 1853 when his great grandfather established the 640 acre Wood Farm in the North East part of the County. Judge Wood continues to produce hay and cattle on a portion of that farm today. He has served as Kaufman County Judge since January of 2011. Prior to his election, he was a High School Government Teacher, and School Administrator for 40 years. Judge Wood feels strongly about building productive working relationships and improved communication at all levels of government.
